

CONSEQUENCE MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES INTRODUCTORY PROGRAM

A one-day introductory program, on key Consequence
Management Principles

Image: Genoa Bridge Collapse

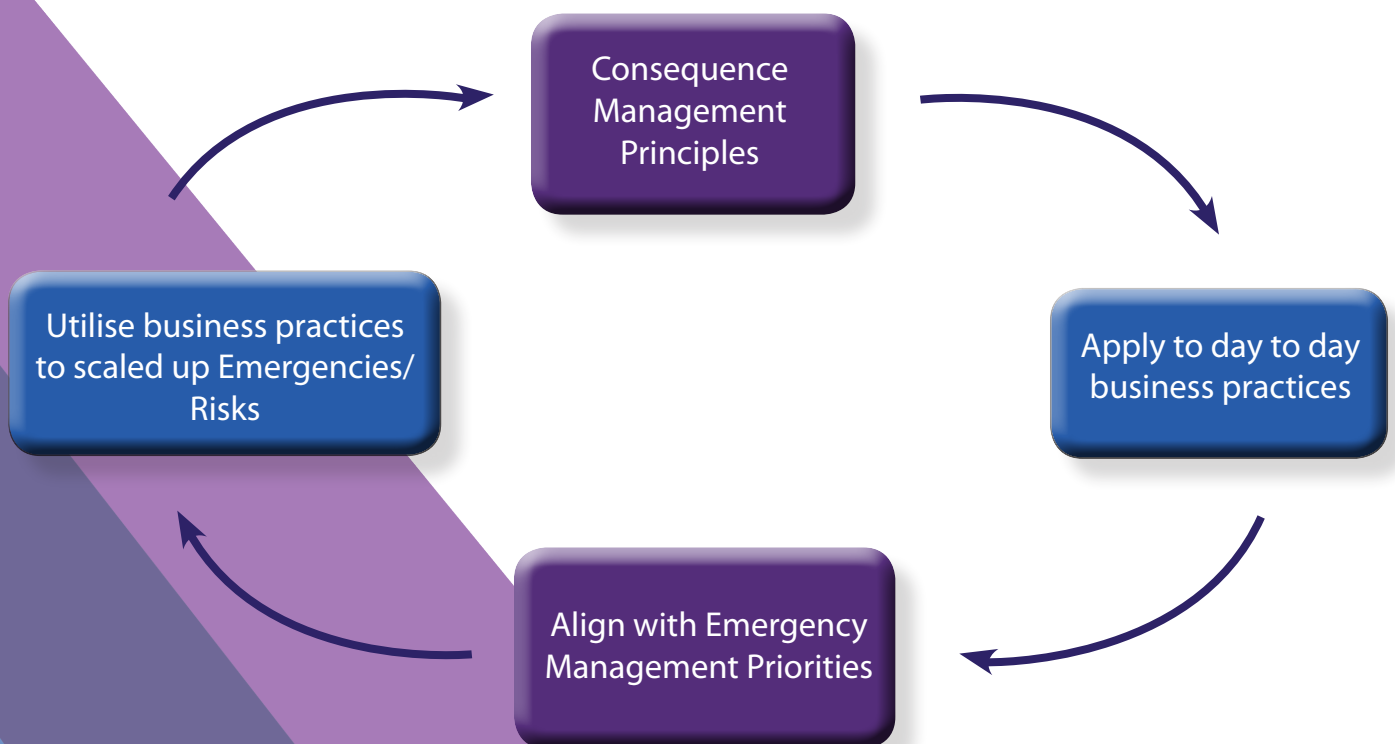

Barrington Centre

Do you want to approach business issues differently?

Do you want to be innovative in your conceptual thinking and business delivery?

Are you wanting to broaden the decision making models you utilise?

This one day program aims to provide Delegates with an understanding of key Consequence Management Principles to apply to good business practices

For further information contact Barrington Centre at programs@barringtoncentre.com or 1300 857 363

Learn the principles of Consequence Management and how these principles can improve day to day business practices

These frameworks enable better management of projects, business risks, business continuity and emergencies.

Who would benefit?

- Anyone who wants to expand their thinking and decision making into a broader consequence management framework
- Anyone who wants to learn how to genuinely partner with other stakeholders to reach the right outcomes

Objectives:

- Understand Consequence Management principles
- Apply Consequence Management principles to day to day business in thinking paradigms, planning and decision making
- Integrate risk assessment and consequence assessment
- Build a working knowledge of the key Emergency Management strategies and principles
- Reinforce Consequence Management principles through a practical scenario based application

Program Modules

CONSEQUENCE MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES

- Broader consequences of decisions
- Dynamic Risk Assessment
- Consequence Assessment

THINKING PARADIGMS

- Presentation of different decision making models
- Application of consequence management thinking influencing decision making processes

KEY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES

- People and community centric
- Risk driven
- Flexibility
- Integrated, Collaborative & Unified
- Communication

IMPLICATIONS FOR STAKEHOLDERS

- Business continuity
- Collaboration
- Brokering shared responsibility
- Planning
- Public safety

KEY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT FRAMEWORKS

- Preparedness Framework
- Community Resilience Framework

APPLICATION

- Scenario exercise to apply the principles & frameworks covered in the one-day program
- Opportunity to learn from other organisations

For further information contact Barrington Centre at programs@barringtoncentre.com or 1300 857 363